

Future Traffic Light Plans

The City of Colorado Springs is studying the traffic to see if Dublin Blvd and Shimmering Creek warrant a traffic light. They also have a light planned once Dublin is extended to Marksheffel and another traffic light will be installed when Black Forest opens up to Woodmen Rd. They do not anticipate that being completed until the rest of the area is developed.